

This is a message from Northamptonshire West Police...

We can give you an update on the credit card fraud that has recently been occurring in the South of the county.

The Shell petrol station on the A508 at Wootton has been used in connection with credit card fraud but has been checked out and is now safe to use again.

Please pass this information on to anyone who, you feel, may need to know.

Please also remind friends neighbours and family members to regularly check their bank statements and to report any unaccountable transactions to their bank and to the police.

Thank you.
