

This is a message from Northamptonshire West Police to all residents living in the area of Deanshanger.

Police are appealing for information about an armed robbery in Deanshanger.

The incident took place at about 9pm on Monday 23 February at the Murco petrol station on the A422. As the 25-year-old male victim was stocking the shelves, an offender came into the shop and threatened him with what police believe was a handgun. While this was happening another offender stood at the door and another waited outside. The offenders made off on foot towards Deanshanger with cash and cigarettes from the petrol station. The male who threatened the cashier was wearing a balaclava, was about 5ft tall, of large build, white and aged between 15 and 18. One of the other offenders was also white, of skinny build and around the same age.

Thankfully this sort of incident is very rare in this part of the county but if you have any information relating to this crime please contact the police or Crimestoppers on the numbers given below, quoting ref WB/CM/205
